Pray Heed the Words of Their Royal Majesties

Warm summer greetings to the Outlands and all who may come by these letters. The camping season is in full swing and We have been enjoying Our time at events renewing old acquaintances and making new ones. Everywhere We have gone in Our travels We have been met with smiling faces and helping hands. The Outlands is composed of energetic people who are very passionate about their Kingdom and their local groups and it fills Our hearts with joy to know that so many care about this Kingdom.

That passion was very evident when We visited al-Barran for Grand Outlandish and held a polling to help determine the next Baron and Baroness. We would like to thank all of those good gentles who came forth to share their views and ideas with Us and We would especially like to thank the candidates who stepped forward and were willing to give of themselves in order to lead al-Barran into the future. That future will begin at Stag's Bloodbath when Their Excellencies Ryan and Tana, will retire to some well-deserved rest and Sir Gregor and Lady Monika will be invested as the new Coronet of al-Barran. We would like to congratulate Sir Gregor and Lady Monika and wish them and al-Barran many joyous and prosperous days to come. We would also like to thank Their Excellencies Ryan and Tana for all that they have done for Barony and Kingdom during their tenure. We know their retirement will be short-lived and We would wish them the best in all of their future projects and endeavors.

The passion for this Kingdom tells Us that the Outlands has a grand future in store for it indeed, but this month We look to the past as much as to the future. We hope that all who are able to will join Us as We celebrate 20 years worth of memories and history in the beautiful mountains west of Dragonsspine. Outlands 20th Year Celebration is shaping up to be the event of the summer with many activities planned for warriors, artisans, bards, and archers of all ages and skill. Blessed are We to be Crown of this great Kingdom during such a time of joy and prosperity.

In Service to the Stag and all who follow him,
We remain Your faithful Crown

Kingdom Seneschal of the Outlands

To the populace of the Outlands, greetings;

There are some in this Society that remind me of why I joined and continue to enjoy this game. Their Excellencies Ryan and Tana have been and will be shining examples of chivalry and grace -- thank you both for a job well done! Enjoy your retirement! Congratulations to Sir Gregor von Munchausen and Lady Monika the Fair as they ascend to the Baronial dignity of al-Barran on July 8th at Stag's Blood Bath. I hope that they find the same support that was offered to their predecessor.

Outlands Twentieth Year Celebration is just weeks away. The Twentieth Year staff has already done a magnificent job planning this event -- so many wonderful activities have been planned that there really is something for everyone.

There are several superb events to attend this summer. Please be ever mindful of your own limitations and be aware of those around you; heat, dehydration and exhaustion can be very dangerous combination. The chirurgeons and water bearers are here to help. Always remember to acknowledge their good deeds with courtesy.

Amitie c'est le Roi,
Mistress Leah de Montgomerie of Lark Hall

Kingdom Marshal of Fence

Greetings onto the populace of the mighty Outlands,

To start I'd like to offer a hearty HUZZAH to Don Charles for his excellent tenure as KRM. I'd also wish him a relaxing time ahead, but that doesn't seem to be his style. He continues as my Drop Dead Deputy until a suitable replacement may be found and as the list minister for the on-line rapier community.

As the incoming KRM there are few items I need to address.

First, if you are a current Authorizing Marshal and would like to continue as one you need to contact me. Second, I am looking for a Drop Dead Deputy. If you are interested in this position please contact me. Third, if you are the local Rapier Marshal for a group and not listed below, please contact me.

Sense a theme here? My preferred contact method is electronic and my contact information is in this worthy publication. I hope everyone is having a fun and safe tourney season. Remember to stay hydrated and thank the water-bearers who look after all of us.

Warranted Authorizing Marshals (I do apologize for mispellings on names):

Citadel/Nahrun Kabirun - Baron Giovanni da Lucca and Viscount Berold de Gilbert
al-Barran - Lord Tomas and Lord Traithgren McCormick
Drygestan - Don Ulrich Kreiger
Fontaine dans Sable - Baron Duncan Alastair MacRae
Caerthe - THL Rivka Vladimirovna Rivkina, Lord Oengus MacTaggert, Lady Natalia Vasilkovna Riazanskaia and Lady Jervel
Caer Galen - Master Ian of Nightsgate and Don Madoch Greyson
Investigating AM - Master Massimiliano Pontieri del Sasso
Deputy KRM - Don Charles Robert Blackstone

In Service,
Don Christian St. Claire'

White Stag Principal Herald

Greetings, fellow Outlanders!

In this month of celebrating twenty years of Outlands sovereignty, I encourage everyone to do their part, small or large, to preserve both our history and our future. Tell the stories, sing the songs, put hands to the tasks of keeping the chronicles, and make sure to use plenty of sunscreen and drink plenty of water while you're about it. Check your listings at wimble@outlandsheralds.org and wharrow@outlandsheralds.org, and report any errors or omissions to the appropriate member of my staff, that we might keep the most accurate records for our progeny.

LOAR RESULTS: The February 2006 LoAR has been received. Details are, or soon will be, available at http://www.sca.org/heraldry/loar/, and submitters will be notified by postal mail.

I remain yours in glad service and duty,
THLady Sorcha MacLeod

Kingdom Exchequer

Greetings to the Populace of the Outlands.

The office of the Chamberlain will become vacant later this summer. The Chamberlain is responsible for tracking kingdom regalia and ensuring it is in good repair. If you are interested in this office, please submit a letter to the Crown, myself and Duchess Kathryn by July 31st. My heartfelt thanks to Duchess Kathryn for her service in this office.

A gentle reminder...if you have un-retired items of regalia from past reigns in your possession, especially Guard tabards, please get it to the current Crown immediately so your successors may use it.

In Service.
THLady Thorhalla Bjarnadottir

Kingdom Chamberlain

Greetings unto my fellow Outlanders!!
I hope all are well and enjoying their time in the Society tremendously. Circumstances in my life have lead me to have to leave the office of Chamberlain. I wish to find a replacement before Crown Tournament in September. If you are a concerned and conscientious person who cares deeply for the Kingdom's prized processions and regalia, perhaps this job is for you.

I have started an Access database listing all the regalia items, but this format can be easily transformed into Excel or other software. I have almost all the regalia in pictures as well. Shortly I will also be holding another auction of items no longer used by the Crown as well as updating the Outlands web site with the photos taken. There are several projects in the works but there is also much that can be done to make our Crown look its best in Court here and at foreign events.

If you would like any questions answered place email me. If you'd like to apply for this position please send letters to the Crown, THL Thorhalla (Exchequer) and myself.

Steadfast in service,
Duchess Kathryn of Iveragh, Chamberlain retiring

Kingdom Minister of Children

Unto the great populace of the Outlands does Lady Jayne Barber send greetings

A lot of exciting new plans are in the works for our youth! So the Outlands Youth Team has been formed to help with youth projects and to support the exchange of ideas, sharing of resources, promotion of youth activities, discussion of issues relevant to the youth and support our youth throughout the Outlands. Membership in the Outlands Youth Team and its discussion list is open to local Ministers of Children and their Deputies, local groups' youth leaders, Seneschals, coordinators of youth activities, heads of local page schools, youth activity volunteers, youth teachers, mentors of our youth, children, teens, parents and anyone who cares about youth issues in the Outlands. We hope that you will join this Youth Team by joining its discussion group at http://groups.yahoo.com/group/OutlandsYouthTeam/

I know there are lots of fun activities planned for the youth attending Unser Hafen's Glory IX, June 30-July 4th and Dragonsspine's Warlord and Champions June 23-25. For more information about these events, see http://www.unserhafen.org/glorywar/ or http://www.dragonsspine.org/wiki/index.php?n=Events.WarlordAndChampions2006.

Remember, every event can require youth waiver forms beyond the Kingdom's requirements. So it is important to check the event's website for the youth forms that the event requires.

For youth activities at Outlands 20th, we need your help! There will be three full days and many classes, fun activities and service opportunities on Thursday, Friday and Saturday for the children and teens at our Outlands 20th Year Celebration, which will be held at Cripple Creek, Colorado this July 27-30. If you would like to teach an A&S class, donate prizes, host a youth activity, talk with them about the SCA, help with youth classes and activities or you have ideas to share, please contact me as soon as possible. If you are planning youth activities at your events, please let me know so that I can help spread the word. I hope you will share this information with your friends and your local group.

In service,
Lady Jayne Barber

Kingdom Mistress of the Lists

Good Day!

July is here, one of my favorite months! This July heralds the ultimate event in the Kingdom, the Outlands Twentieth Year Celebration. It promises to be a grand event, full of fighting and fun. For those MoLs who are planning to attend, the Outlands has need of you.

There are many great tournaments planned, and many fighters will be attending. So many, in fact, that some tournaments will probably need more than one MoL. This is a great opportunity for not only local group MoLs to meet the needs of their Kingdom, but also for those who have stepped out of local offices, and still enjoy running a tournament or two.

Please contact me for more details, and to schedule to volunteer. I will be scheduling tournaments pretty much up to the departure day. The best way to contact me is via email avikinggoddess@yahoo.com or mol@outlands.org or by phone at 505-334-1955.

As Ever Yours,
Lady Mariah Abramsdottir

Kingdom Minister of Arts & Sciences

Greetings Outlands,
There are several groups in July who will be hosting A & S activities at their events. The Barony of Unser Hafen will be having classes and a competition at Glory IX, June 30th – July 4th. The Barony of al-Barran will be having A & S classes at Stags Bloodbath on July 8th. The Shire of Drygestan will be having A & S classes at Lonely Mountain, July 13th-16th. The Shire of Blackwater Keep will be hosting an Arts & Sciences day on July 22nd. At Outlands 20th year, there will be both A & S classes and competitions, July 27th-30th. There will also be A & S classes for the youth of Outlands at this event.

At Outlands 20th year, sponsored by the Barony of Dragonsspine held on July 27th-30th, there will be two separate Arts & Science events running, the first is to be themed: Kingdom devices in any medium. A rambling prehistory of the Outlands by Louis-Philippe Mitouard, and all who came before.

The Outlands has a rich and fine history, dating to the earliest years of the kingdom of Atenveldt, which itself is old, being the fourth kingdom of the SCA. I will give a brief 'prehistory' of the Outlands before the formation of the Principality.

The present kingdom of the Outlands consists of Eastern Slope Wyoming, Eastern slope Colorado, New Mexico, the Platte valley of Nebraska, and El Paso, Texas.

Originally, the region that became the Outlands was literally all of Atenveldt that wasn't Phoenix, Arizona. Atenveldt, itself, seems to have been composed, essentially, of all that was not the West, the Midrealm and the East (see the quote [9] below).

Although Atenveldt spanned 'Mountain to coast', most was evidently terra incognita. In the same year that Caerthe was formed, Richard Ironsteed (the writer, Rick Cook) later to become the first King of Atenveldt, is quoted by Michael Cady (Duke Arthur of Lockehaven):

The Arizona Republic featured this event on the front page of the magazine section May 31, 1970, with a terrific article and several photographs. It was entitled "Camelot In the Desert." The following are quotes from this article; "The purpose of the society", Cook (Rick) explained, "is to recreate chivalry and medievalism as we feel it should have been." "Atenveldt recently learned that because of its success it will become a full-grown kingdom with subdivisions - baronies - in New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas." "The Scottsdale tournament ended with a revel celebrating the new prince, Arthur of Lockehaven, who soundly defeated all challengers for the crown. [The Coronet, really. This was a coronet tournament of the Principality of Atenveldt -Louis]" [2]

The 'culture' of the Outlands goes back to its very beginnings with the founding of the Kingdom of Atenveldt in 1971. The oldest barony in the Outlands - Caerthe - started the previous year, with Judith de Beaumont as its first (official) baroness.

Indeed, Caerthe existed even before Atenveldt became a kingdom! One history of the Kingdom of the West gives the Barony of Caerthe as belonging to it and being handed over, along with the group in New Orleans, to Atenveldt upon its ascension to Kingdom. [1]. The History of the Kingdom of the West states: "Duke Henrik presented Sir Richard with the Crown of Atenveldt, along with the title of the Principality of Atenveldt, the Barony of Caerthe, the Barony of New Mexico [Which, I suspect meant the Freehold of the Great River, discussed later - Louis], and all lands between the West and the East and below the Middle" [9]. Atenveldt also had been given control of all of the Deep South, and all of the intermountain West. Problem was, there were no groups there.

As the story has come down to the present day, the Outlands, and perhaps more the Barony of Caerthe, arose feeling 'ignored' by Atenveldt. I think this countered by observing that Atenveldt's original 'vision' may not have extended beyond the state of Arizona (or, indeed, the city of Phoenix). Interesting that in a sense Atenveldt is now as it started, being a group in Arizona that originally received a great deal of other territory somewhat unbidden. If, indeed, it never really understood or accepted the 'Outlands', it could because it was really outside the original founders' concept of their group, with few other groups there to influence their view. Yet, this author does not find fault with the Aten founders for this. It simply points out how Atenveldt grew to be the ideal 'mother of kingdoms' (spawning the kingdoms of Ansteorra, Outlands, Artemisia and Meridies, which in turn formed Trimaris and Gleann Abhann). It was, more than the West, Midrealm or East, an incubator. That is, when SCA groups did finally arise in those 'Outland' territories, they would hive off as soon as they became mature enough to stand on their own.

The Barony of Caerthe

The Summer 1971 Tournaments Illuminated (as cited in Trends of Change in the SCA) [6] lists the following groups in Atenveldt:

Present and Possible branches of the SCA…
Kingdom of Atenveldt:
Principality of Atenveldt, Kirk of Windarrow, Tempe AZ
Barony of Caerthe, Judith de Beaumont, Denver, CO
Freehold of the Great River, Lady la Rana, Las Cruces, NM.
Barony of Cluain, Ronald the German, Del City, OK
Barony of the Fens, Hewlin, New Orleans, LA.

The Barony of Caerthe was started in 1970 or thereabouts. As much in the 'dawn of history,' the origins of the Barony of Caerthe contain a legend. The founding Baroness - Judith de Beaumont - was perhaps not the first, but rather the second Baroness of Caerthe:

Master Louis le Blanc (Donald Blanchard), one of the earliest members of Caerthe, wrote: "Caerthe was founded by a High School Medieval Club in the area of Denver, Colorado. (How the group learned of the S.C.A. was not related to me.) It was the policy of the Board of Directors at that time that a legal agent be appointed for every state in which a barony was founded, whose responsibility it was to register the Corporation with the local Secretary of State. (In those days, a barony was the smallest, and I believe the only sized branch which the B.O.D. chartered.) The High School Medieval Club's faculty advisor was unwilling to assume this responsibility, and there existed no other member with sufficient years to pursue such legal matters.

While Caerthe thus functioned in a state of legal limbo, a lady from the local Denver Area Science Fiction Association (DASFA), one Judith de Beaumont later Mistress Judith de Beaumont, O.P.) chanced to attend an SF convention out in the Land of the Mists, at which was staged an S.C.A. demo. Upon returning to her homeland, Judith wrote a missive to the Board of Directors asking if she could establish a branch here in Colorado. As she was the first adult from which the BOD had received correspondence, they immediately sent her a return missive, stating that a barony already existed, that its name was Caerthe, and that she was Seneschal (i.e. legal agent). "Now Judith de Beaumont is a very gracious lady, and has done much in the service of the Society (it was she who ultimately recruited me into the Barony), but tact and diplomacy, particularly when dealing with tempermental [sic] teenagers, was not a dominant feature of her personality. It is reported only that when she called the Baroness of Caerthe and told her (the Baroness) that she (Judith) was the new Seneschal, the Baroness threw the proverbial fit. Suffice it to tell that neither the (former) Baroness nor her followers has never been seen since.

Thus was it left for Judith to recruit an entirely new membership for the Barony, which she found primarily within the membership of DASFA (the SF group). Now, it happens that there was one girl who was a member of DASFA who was also a member (albeit a peripheral one) of the High School Medieval Club; it was she from whom I first heard this tale. Regrettably, she was not present at the meeting in which the Barony's name was chosen, nor when its device was created, and thus has no knowledge of the meaning or derivation of the name "Caerthe." (It is widely believed that the name derives in part from the Welsh word 'caer,' taken to mean a stone fortress -- and that the Chief embattled of the Barony's device represents the battlements to be found on such an edifice, but this is and forever shall remain pure speculation.)'[3]

The ancient Freehold of the Great River

The second barony, al-Barran, was started before April 1973. However, the second group in the Outlands was the Freehold of the Great River (Las Cruces, NM). It was a group of such great antiquity that the BoD 'census' of 1976 listed it as grandfathered ('G' - existing before 1972). [4] The Freehold of the Great River is now defunct, although the Shire of Nahrun Kabirun emerged very soon after the Freehold was disbanded and is arguably the same group under a different title, having some of the same citizens. Jarl Gunwaldt (Keith Dodd) wrote*: "The Freehold of Great River was founded by Master Richard the Short (one of the original founders of the SCA) and it may be argued that it is/was even older that Caerthe, since the 'group' was established in AS II while Richard was teaching at NMSU ... The Freehold was self-proclaimed to be such so as not to be part of any kingdom."* [10]. The Great River was unique in the SCA world. Freehold, I believe, never was a recognized group type. By the time in the late '70s when the SCA was more structured, it was recognized as a synonym for Barony, with a Thane and Thaness being the ruling nobles (equivalent to Baron and Baroness).

The formation of the Barony of al-Barran:

In April 1973, the Board of Directors took note of the formation of al-Barran (spelled by them alBaron). Mistress Mirhaxa (Linda Peterson) wrote: "al-Baran doesn't mean anything, and comes from the star name Aldebaran. [which actually means "the Follower" - L]. The very amusing gentleman who came up with the name claimed the star was The Black Scorpion, and therefore al-Baran would mean Scorpion, hence our device. We had looked at Albuquerque and felt that the Spanish influence was major, looked at Spain in the Middle ages and found it was Moorish. This was the origin of our leaning to Islamic and Middle Eastern aspects in the SCA. Climate considerations reinforced the leaning in regards to costume." [7]

The Name 'Outlands':

Countess Aelflaed (Sandra Dodd) wrote: "In old Atenveldt days, the barony (then all of the Phoenix area) was called Atenveldt and the rest of the kingdom (a few groups in Arizona, plus Caerthe, Great River, Stargate, Steppes, and not much more at first, was "the Outlands" (meaning "not Phoenix"). In those days, there were not Kingdom boundaries as there are now. There were states which were not in any kingdom. Those assignments were made in the late 1970's, and the term "Outlands" was around since mid-70's. When the Outlands formed up as a region, the boundary was set at the Arizona border. This meant that the other groups in Arizona, including Tir Ysgithr, which were at one time referred to as "the Outlands" were no longer part of that. It's about that time the "the Principality of the Sun" slipped into existence, probably in part to cover that lack of terminology to cover non-barony-of-Atenveldt which wasn't in another principality (Meridies, Ansteorra or Outlands)." [5]

The name 'Outlands' itself was somewhat controversial. Mistress Karina, Laurel Queen of Arms, returned the name in 1977 citing (in rather a reach) a conflict with: "Lewis Carroll's Sylvie and Bruno, wherein it is a fantasy land whose peculiar properties are contrasted with those of England."[11] The name was changed to Utanwayard, a rough translation of 'Outlands' - which never really caught on (and may not have even been registered - I can find

Come one, come all, gather for the opening of the greatest event of the fall days - Three Stags Autumn Battle and Faire.

The Barony of Caerthe invites one and all to the exciting new event that will transport you to a medieval town fair, and challenge you to battles grand till you can fight no more. September 1st through 4th (Labor Day weekend) 2006 at Casey Jones Park in Elizabeth, Colorado/ 4189 Highway 86/ 80107. Please see web site for further details. http://www.threestagsevent.com/

Pets must be on a leash at all times and picked up after. This is a heavily wooded area so check often on fire restrictions; they will be updated on the web site as the summer progresses. All fires must be off the ground in containers, a fire extinguisher nearby and someone from the camp present at all times when the fire is lit. Any unattended fires will be put out and the container confiscated by the Autocrats till the end of the event. (Groveling and bribes may affect getting them back, at the whim of the Autocrats) Bring your wood, no gleaning of the wood on site. Torches may be allowed at the whim of the fire restrictions. Alcohol in period containers only, no glass bottles and the age limit will be enforced. Since we are right next to the town of Elizabeth and have neighbors on both sides of the park, a noise curfew will be set for 12:00am (midnight). It may be later on Saturday depending on the park ranger.

Some of the planned events are:

A large list of tourneys and battles
The Caerthen Warlord Tourneys
Ballista Bingo
Archery shoots
A&S classes as part of the fair ambiance
Pageantry, Pageantry, Pageantry!!
Fencing till you drop
Children's Activities
A Pas d' Armes

Shine up your helms, make your banners, and get your heraldic garb together! There will be a contest for the best heraldry display, for individuals and households, and a contest for the best display of Kingdom, Baronial, Shire, Canton, or etc..... colors and devices. Make something to show your pride in your Kingdom! A parade through the town to the beginning of the Pas d' Armes tournament will show all your finery off. Make your campsite a showpiece! Another contest will be the display of pageantry in camps - show off your household or personal colors!

Position Available – Editor, The Compleat Anachronist

The Society for Creative Anachronism Inc. is accepting applications for the position of Editor for The Compleat Anachronist. The Compleat Anachronist is a pamphlet series published four times a year. Each issue focuses on a topic relevant to the time period 600 C.E. to 1600 C.E. The Compleat Anachronist therefore gives readers an opportunity to review a subject in much more detail than Tournaments Illuminated, a Kingdom Arts and Sciences publication, or a local newsletter can provide.

In addition to producing issues, the editor answers queries, develops manuscripts, maintains contact with reviewers and illustrators, and submits quarterly reports to the Board of Directors. The position requires approximately 10 hours per month, except during the month before publication, when 20 to 25 hours is spent putting an issue together (this includes proofreading, layout, correspondence, and file sharing with authors/reviewers). The deadlines to get the layout to the printer are 7 December, 7 March, 7 June, and 7 September. The issues are mailed for January, April, July, and October.

Qualifications for the position include excellent written and oral communication skills, the ability to work independently to prioritize tasks and meet deadlines, and strong computer skills. Professional experience in a modern editing design, art direction or desktop publishing environment and prior experience in an SCA chronicler position are desirable, but not required.

Applicants need to have access to and experience with a computer running PageMaker, Quark or InDesign and the ability to export files to .pdf format (if working on a PC – our printing vendor uses Macintosh computers). Reasonable expenses are covered by the Corporation and may include: paper, printer cartridges, stamps, express mailing of discs and bluelines to printer, and a post office box. You will be asked to submit an expense report, with receipts attached to receive reimbursement. The Editor also receives a small stipend from SCA once an issue is completed.

Hard copies of résumés (both professional and medieval, including offices held and awards received) must be sent to:

SCA Inc. Attn: CA Editor Position, P.O. Box 360789, Milpitas, CA 95036-0789
Electronic copies may also be sent to resumes@sca.org.

Résumés must be received by July 31, 2006. Questions regarding the position may be directed to Theresa Crean, The Compleat Anachronist Editor via telephone at (613) 328-7721, or via e-mail at caeditor@sca.org.
